Desert Shoot additional fee AED800

The session fee covers my time to consult and plan with you before your shoot, the session itself and my time editing and creating the gallery that tells your story after the shoot. It does not include any products.

The Full Portrait Digital Collection is my best selling product, and has been since 2010. Clients tell me that they love that it means they have their photos forever, and yet still have a beautiful keepsake product as a memento to look back on. Nobody looks with love at a USB sitting forgotten in a drawer, but a box full of gorgeous photos that tell your story will be browsed through and adored over and over again.

MINI SESSIONS

As my style of photography is storytelling it does not lend itself well to mini-sessions. However, they are available as an add-on only to clients who have had a shoot in the previous 12 months.

All major credit cards are accepted via paypal.

To be fair to all my valued clients, rates are not negotiable.

Session fee is due at the time of booking | Payment for products is due at the time of order/session
